BAGGAGE RECORDS WERE BROKEN HERE

Transfer Company Handled 3,000 Pieces for Members of Convention.

NONE OF IT WENT ASTRAY

By noon yesterday the Richmond Transfer Company had delivered the last of 3,000 pieces of baggage belonging to members of the Episcopal convention, and without receiving a complaint of a serious nature from those on the still hunt for trunks. "It was the biggest rush in the same space of time we have ever had," said Manager John M. Dunn last night, "and I want to say that I never dealt with a finer class of people. They are all princes. Having waited, he decided to visit the transfer office in person, and when he reached the storehouse on Eighth Street Manager Dunn was there to meet him. While they talked a wagon stopped in front. "Oh, there is my trunk," said Manager Dunn. "Without more ado, and eliminating ceremony, he jumped on the wagon and seized a satchel with the utmost glee. "You are nice fellows," he said to Manager Dunn.

One hundred and forty checks were delivered to agents on the "Bishop's Special" from Washington, and, counting those from the Morgan car, the transfer people had 170. The number secured on the special was the largest ever handled on one train.

"The baggage man's life is rough at times," said Manager Dunn, "but with all of this rush there was not a single display of temper. It isn't often that we deal with such courteous travelers."

ASKS $3,000,000 FINE

Arkansas Opens Campaign Against Two Telephone Companies. MEMPHIS, Tenn., October 2.—A special grand jury indicted the Arkansas Telephone and Telegraph Company and the Southwest Telephone and Telegraph Company, asking a fine of $3,000,000. The complaint states that prior to May, 1905, the Southwest Telephone Company was the sole provider of telephone service in the state, and that shortly thereafter the Southern Telephone Company was organized for the avowed purpose of competition, and the establishment of a plant here. The state alleges that by means of this pretended competition the new company acquired several thousand new customers and thereby obtained a monopoly of the telephone service in the state. It is claimed that it was a case to defeat the law against pools, combines and trusts.

Brief Items Around Town

One of the most distinguished lay delegates in the convention is General Cook, United States army, retired, of Fall River, Mass. Among those registered at headquarters yesterday was Miss Gortchuck, a missionary of the Philippine Islands. Miss Gortchuck is stopping at No. 620 North Twenty-seventh Street. Secretaries Meet. A meeting of the Diocesan Secretaries' League was held in the parish house of Holy Trinity Church last night at 8 o'clock. This organization is composed of the secretaries of the diocesan churches of the American Church. The Rev. Sydney N. Ussher, B. D., president, called the meeting to order. He said that the secretaries of the churches in the diocese were to be identified with several of the exploration parties and societies in the Holy Land and Asia Minor, Mesopotamia, Egypt and India. He is attending the General Convention, and has been traveling extensively for the Board of Missions.

HECHLER RELEASED ON NOMINAL BOND

He Is Elected to Membership in Academy of Jurisprudence Also.

DECLARES HE IS INNOCENT

Henry C. Hechler, Democratic nominee for treasurer of Henrico county, indicted by the grand jury for violation of the Barksdale pure election law, was released by Judge Scott yesterday in the sum of $500 for his appearance on October 14th. Newton L. Gentry, his son-in-law, was likewise permitted to go on a similar bond. J. Samuel Barber, a brother of former Treasurer W. H. Brauer, of Henrico, being surety for both defendants. It appeared that confusion of names on the part of the grand jury led to the indictment of Mr. Hechler, and he was released on his own recognizance. Bench warrants, issued for Hechler, Gentry and Atkinson required them to appear in court at 1 P. M. Mr. Hechler, however, went to the courthouse at noon and was arrested at 12:45. He was in the custody of the officers of the court for less than one hour. It is charged in the indictment that Hechler paid the poll taxes of a number of citizens, the idea being, of course, that they would support him in the recent election. If convicted, he may be sent to jail for not less than one month or more than twelve months, or he may be fined not less than $100 or more than $1,000. There were forty counts in the indictment, and the grand jury was satisfied that there was sufficient proof after examination of the grand jury's witnesses, to send him up for trial.

SERVICES IN CAPITOL SQUARE

Just after the close of the sessions of the General Convention yesterday afternoon about 6 o'clock an open-air service was held in the Capitol Square, to which place a large number of people were attracted by the sound of the singing. Several hundred stopped to listen to the address.

The Rev. C. C. Grafton, Bishop of Potomac, presided at the open-air service, which was both brief and simple in character. Brief addresses were made by the Rev. Dr. Waggett, of London Eng., one of the distinguished clergymen visiting the convention, and by the Rev. Dr. Wilkinson, of Minneapolis, known as the "Bishop of Wall Street."

Dr. Waggett, speaking of a missionary scientist, having taken leave at Oxford degree courses on science and theology. He is a brilliant type of evangelist, speaker, and attractor of attention. His informal open-air services, Bishop Grafton announced that another open-air service would be held in the Capitol Square, weather permitting, this afternoon on the close of the sessions of the General Convention about 5 o'clock.

Another curious twist in Henrico politics came to the surface when J. Samuel Brauer went to the front as Hechler's bondsman. Ordinarily, this might not attract attention, but Mr. Brauer happens to be the brother of the former treasurer by that name. Some years ago when J. H. Brauer was the nominee for treasurer of the County Committee ruled against him, refusing to permit him to qualify. The matter went to the State Committee, which declared, in substance, that the evidence against him was so strong enough to convict a yellow dog. Thereafter Hechler and Todd formed a combination, went into the general election, and Todd was elected. Hechler subsequently being appointed by Judge Scott to the office of Henrico treasurer, and later removed him for malfeasance in office. It was the hope of being vindicated of this latter charge that led Hechler into the primary this year. In that fight it is said the Brauer influence was thrown to him, after he had fought W. H. Brauer in one of the warmest contests in the county. Knowing what happened in the campaign there was not much surprise yesterday when Sam Brauer became Hechler's bondsman.

TRADE INTERESTS JOIN EFFORTS FOR PEACE

Tokio and New York Chambers of Commerce Are in Accord Thereon.

NEW YORK, October 3.—A letter from the Tokio Chamber of Commerce, appealing to the New York Chamber of Commerce to do all in its power to prevent a breach in the relations between the United States and Japan over the San Francisco incident, and the reply of the New York Chamber, expressing confidence that "wholesome views on the situation, in a candid and public sentiment will assert itself in the locality where these incidents occurred," were made public at today's meeting of the New York Chamber.

The letter from Tokio, which was signed not only by the Tokio chamber, but also by the presidents of four other Japanese Chambers of Commerce, after briefly referring to the trouble in San Francisco, said: "Should the progress of the trade and commerce between the two nations be at any time obstructed as the result of unwarrantable action of a small local population, the loss to be sustained by the two countries would be incalculable. For these reasons the undersigned representatives of the Chambers of Commerce venture to address this letter to you to express our views on the situation, in a candid and public sentiment will assert itself in the locality where these incidents occurred, and in view of the mutual advantage of our trade relations, make your best efforts to speedily eliminate the present causes of discord and insure our common prosperity for the future."

GLADYS VANDERBILT TO WED

Daughter of Cornelius Vanderbilt Engaged to Hungarian Count.

NEWPORT, R. I., October 3.—Mrs. Vanderbilt, widow of the late Cornelius Vanderbilt, to-day made formal announcement of the engagement of her daughter, Gladys, to Count Szechenyi, of Hungary. Within a few hours after the formal announcement "The Breakers," the summer home of Mrs. Vanderbilt, was deluged with hundreds of bouquets for Miss Vanderbilt. Several congratulatory telegrams and cablegrams also were received during the day.

Miss Vanderbilt's fiancé arrived here from New York last night on the private car, "Wayfarer," owned by Alfred G. Vanderbilt, a brother of Gladys. He was met at the station by Miss Gladys Vanderbilt, who drove in a basket phaeton to "The Breakers." To-day Miss Vanderbilt and Count Szechenyi went to Portsmouth to visit the country estate of her brother Alfred. It is expected that the wedding will take place next month, and it is generally believed that the ceremony will be performed in the historic Trinity Church, where Miss Vanderbilt's mother is a pew-holder.

CHICAGO NURSE IN LUCK

"Unreconstructed Rebel" in Australia Leaves Her $600,000 Estate.

CHICAGO, Ill., October 3.—Mrs. Helen St. Clair Noble, a nurse at the Hannemann Medical College here, was advised yesterday by the death of Colonel Benjamin Carroll Dent, a ranchman of Sydney, Australia, she is heir to $600,000. The information was imparted by Dudley Bagley, an attorney of Sydney. Colonel Dent was a Confederate veteran of the Civil War, and, refusing to be reconstructed, left the United States and became a sheep rancher in Australia and amassed a fortune. Before the war he was a warm friend of Mrs. Noble's family in New Orleans, and kept track of her ever since. Mrs. Noble came to Chicago three years ago and entered the Chicago Hospital. She has two sons, one studying civil engineering and the other at school in New York.

JOHN D. A CENTURY PLANT.

His Physician Points to Him as Example of Open-Air Life.

CHICAGO, October 3.—Dr. Hamilton Biggar, of Cleveland, Ohio, John D. Rockefeller's physician at the forty-eighth annual opening exercises at the Hannemann Medical College here, today gave a recipe for 100 years of life. He said that, barring accident, his one patient, Mr. Rockefeller, should live a century. Here are the rules Dr. Biggar gives for long life: "Fifty-five the American business man should cease to worry, eschew liquor and tobacco and make play in God's out of doors. His chief aim in life is to get his digestive organs and thinking machinery."

MANY UNFORTUNATES HELPED BY MISSION

Methodist Institute Shows Good Record for Past Ten Months.

EMPLOYMENT FOR THE IDLE

Superintendent Sharpe Tells of Work and Shows What Was Done.

Mr. A. B. Sharpe, superintendent of the Methodist Institute for Christian Work, has submitted to the board of control a report of the work done at the mission during the last ten months. The report was very encouraging, and will add new impetus to the work of the institution.

During this period, at the cost of $1,300, all of which is in hand, several necessary additions have been made to the plant, among them a steam heater, with radiators throughout the building, dining-room, kitchen, bathroom and fumigatory.

The object of the institution is to obtain employment for men who are out of work, and to give them board and lodging until they have secured places. Every able-bodied working-man can obtain board and lodging until he can get a position, but the institution is very careful not to extend its good offices to any except those who are sincere.

During the ten months just passed the beneficiaries found employment for 1,950 men, at the average wage of $1.10 per day; the temporary boarding department has provided a place to sleep and food for 457 men; in the board and lodging department 11,132 beds were occupied, 149 paid for by transients, 2,129 given in exchange for work, 2,657 given free, and 482 men given shelter in the chapel, when all the beds were filled. In the lunch department, 1,225 lunches, consisting of sandwiches or soup and coffee, were served. Of this number 2,232 were sold, 19,233 given in exchange for work, and the rest given free. At the chapel services 114 persons have been converted.

The rules of the house are that no one will be allowed to remain an inmate more than one month, after which time he will have accumulated sufficient funds to obtain board and lodging elsewhere, and give up his place to some other unfortunate.
